A CONCERT AT TANGLEWOOD, in the midst of the Berkshires, is a New England tradition and makes for a summer evening you'll never forget. We've chosen two amazing concerts that include conductor Keith Lockhart, our home-town Boston Pops and of course, John Williams' wonderful Film Night. Accommodations are at the historic Red Lion Inn in the heart of Norman Rockwell's favorite town, Stockbridge, and we've included admission to your choice of The Mount, the lovely estate home and gardens of author Edith Wharton, Berkshire Botanical Garden or the Norman Rockwell Museum.

$539 per person double occupancy
The Red Lion Inn has several room types available yet rooms with two beds are limited. Call The Travel Club for room arrangements and to inquire about triple and single reservations. Per person deposit is $300.

The Inn's main building comprises a variety of suites and guest rooms. Each room is individually decorated and carefully furnished. All rooms contain cable television, air conditioning and telephone. This year, for the first time, we also have some rooms in the Inn's Guest Houses. These buildings are former neighborhood residences converted to full service hotel rooms. All rooms have the same amenities and services as the rooms in the Main Inn and parking is actually closer.
