Day 3: Grand Canyon Helicopter Ride

$215/$225* (30 minutes, departs in the morning)

Enjoy a bird's-eye view of the Grand Canyon aboard a thrilling half-hour-long helicopter ride. Soar over the massive canyon, taking in a unique perspective of the striated terrain far below. From high above the canyon rim, you can begin to fully appreciate the immense scale of this natural wonder. Please note: This excursion is weather-dependent.

earned a designation as a National Historic Landmark.

On this excursion, you'll join a local guide and learn more about the dam's fascinating construction and history. Explore the Hoover Powerplant, which produces a massive amount of hydroelectric power, and then stroll through passageways within the dam itself. End your visit in the visitor center before making your way back to Las Vegas. Please note: On this excursion, you will walk for over a mile on concrete and similar hard surfaces.

Day 4: Upper Antelope Canyon & Navajo Nation

$95 (2 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Journey by truck through the Native American territory known as Navajo Nation, a historic area that covers over 27,000 square miles, as you make your way to Upper Antelope Canyon. This breathtaking slot canyon is nicknamed "Corkscrew Canyon" and has been created by the forces of wind and water over thousands of years. It's considered one of the most stunning natural structures in the American Southwest, and you'll learn more about the sandstone formation and its spiritual importance to the Native Americans in the area on a tour with a local Navajo guide. Please note: This excursion is weather-dependent and will not run in the event of rain, due to the danger of flash floods. Tripods, monopods, selfie sticks, and backpacks are not allowed in the canyon. Depending on group size, travelers may be required to travel in separate trucks. Bottled water and comfortable shoes are recommended. This excursion requires advance reservation and must be booked at least 20 days prior to departure.
